

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH CARE SERVICES CAREER EXECUTIVE ASSIGNMENT EXAMINATION ANNOUNCEMENT

The State of California is an equal opportunity employer to all, regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability (mental and physical), exercising the right to family care and medical leave, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious creed, sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), and sexual orientation. It is an objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free work place. Any applicant for state employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the State, the rules governing Civil Service, and the special trust placed in public servants.

DEPARTMENT:	DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH CARE SERVICES	RELEASE DATE:	Thursday, September 3, 2015
POSITION TITLE:	Deputy Director, Office of Civil Rights	FINAL FILING DATE:	Thursday, October 15, 2015
CEA LEVEL:	CEA A	EXTENDED FINAL FILING DATE:
SALARY RANGE:	$ 6,453.00 - $ 9,277.00 / Month	BULLETIN ID:	08242015_2

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Under the direction of the Director, the Deputy Director, Office of Civil Rights, has the responsibility of ensuring: (1) equality and fairness in all aspects of Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO), practices, policies, and benefits; (2) nondiscrimination in the access or delivery of health services provided or administered by the Department; and (3) that health providers receiving federal and state financial assistance through the Department do not discriminate in the provision of services as delineated under federal and state civil rights laws. The Deputy Director provides consultation to the Director, departmental management, contractors, vendors, and all public and private health facilities, under contract with the Department regarding the development and implementation of EEO and civil rights program policies and procedures. The Deputy Director oversees onsite compliance reviews and desk audits to ensure that all persons, agencies, and facilities, to whom the Department gives financial assistance or contracts with, comply with all civil rights laws, regulations, and policies, by preventing discriminatory acts. The Deputy Director provides technical advice and assistance to all levels of management regarding their roles and responsibilities in carrying out the Department's EEO obligations. The Deputy Director provides a uniform body of information on laws, rules, policies, and procedures on EEO goals and timetables, resources, and planning and implementation of programs. The Deputy Director develops and issues policy directives to departmental employees, health providers, and regulatory agencies in the enforcement of federal and state laws and the Department's EEO/nondiscrimination policies and procedures. The Deputy Director acts as liaison between the Department, State Personnel Board, the California Department of Human Resources, the federal Department of Health and Human Services, minority groups, and other community action groups concerned with employment and delivery of health services, including employee protected group advisory committees mandated by state statute. The Deputy Director also keeps apprised of all major changes in civil rights and EEO laws and regulations and advises the Director and Chief Deputy Directors regarding those changes; any related problems that may be caused by those changes; and provides appropriate alternatives for resolution of those problems.
